

An Online CE Event for Psychologists
Tuesday, June 16, 2026—12pm to 1pm (Pacific Time)

2026 Ethics & California Laws Update

Photo by Pixabay: <https://www.pexels.com/photo/low-light-photo-of-opened-book-159872/>

No Registration fee.

Register here:

https://zoom.us/meeting/register/bo-611F0QJqWS_MfPCG0Aw

Online access provided after registration.

CE Info:

1 CE Credit is awarded to psychologists who participate and complete the surveys and evaluation.

Course Description: This program focuses on ethical, legal, statutory or regulatory policies, guidelines, and standards that impact psychological practice, education, or research.

Learning Objectives

- Identify two of the psychology-related Federal and California laws that went into effect between June 2025 and June 2026
- Explain the current focus of the APA Ethics Code Task Force
- List two new ethical principles being considered for inclusion in the upcoming Ethics Code revision

California Northstate University is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. California Northstate University maintains responsibility for this program and its content.

Technology Information
Refund Policy

CALIFORNIA
NORTHSTATE UNIVERSITY

Office of Academic Affairs

David Jull-Patterson, PhD

Licensed Psychologist
Professor and Associate Dean of Faculty
Affairs, Emeritus
CNU College of Psychology

A sixth-generation Californian, Dr. Jull-Patterson received a master's degree in Counselor Education from New York University before receiving his MS and PhD from Pacific Graduate School of Psychology. He completed his APA accredited internship and a post-doctoral fellowship at University of California, San Francisco in health psychology.

Dr. Jull-Patterson was inducted into the Academy of Medical Educators and has won numerous awards for his teaching and mentorship, including Students' Choice: Inspirational Teaching Award at the CNU College of Psychology; Honored Instructor at UC Berkeley; Excellence in Small Group Instruction and Inspirational Teacher at UCSF; and Top Trainer at American Psychological Association.

He chaired the Ethics Committee for the California Psychological Association, was an associate editor for The California Psychologist, and served as a subject matter expert for the development and administration of the California Psychology Law and Ethics Examination at the California Department of Consumer Affairs. Currently he has returned to the CPA Ethics Committee and is its representative to the APA Ethics Task Force, serves as the Ethics Education Committee co-chair on the Board of Directors of the Sacramento Valley Psychological Association, and is a site visitor for the APA Committee on Accreditation.

Contact : joanna.jullien@cnsu.edu Ext. 7891